THE FOLLOWING
VALUABLE MEDICINES.

Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

A long eulogium on the virtues of this medicine is unnecessary, as the money will be returned if patient is not relieved—it never having failed in many thousand cases; not one in a hundred has had occasion to take more than a bottle, and numbers not half a bottle.

Hahn's Anti-bilious Pills.

Dr. HAHN's
TRUE AND GENUINE
German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, as an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in preventing and removing cutaneous blemishes of the face and skin of every kind, particularly, freckles, pimples, pits after small pox, inflammatory reduess, scurfs, setters, ring worms, sun burns, prickly heat, premature wrinkles, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding that natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health—yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth, improving the complexion and restoring the bloom of youth; never failing to render an ordinary countenance beautiful, and a handsome one more so.

Sovereign Ointment for the Itch,

Warranted an infallible and immediate cure, at once using; being the most speedy, effectual and pleasant remedy ever offered to the public, and for the satisfaction of the timorous, the proprietor maketh oath, that this ointment does not contain a single particle of mercury or any other pernicious ingredient in its composition, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women and on infants newly born.

Patent Indian Vegetable Specific,
For the cure of Venereal Complaints of every description,

An extensive trial of near four years, has proved the vegetable specific to be effectual in expelling the venereal virus, however deeply rooted in the constitution, and has restored health to many who have been brought to the verge of the grave by the improper administration of mercury. Within this period upwards of eight thousand patients have experienced its salutary effects.

With the medicine is given a description of the symptoms which obtain in every stage of the disease, with copious directions for their treatment, so as to accomplish a perfect cure in the shortest time and with the least inconvenience possible.

HAMILTON's
Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have, within nine months past, relieved upwards of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND PERSONS of all ages in various complaints arising from worms and from foulness or obstructions in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of, as operating with a degree of violence, sufficient, not only to kill worms, but sometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

☞ At the place of sale may be seen many remarkable cases of cures, the authenticity of which any person may ascertain, either by letter or personal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

Persons wishing to procure any of the above medicines genuine, must apply ONLY as above—and likewise observe, that the signature of Lee & Co. (who are appointed the general agents for the United States) is pasted on the outside of each, without which they cannot be genuine.

At the above place may be likewise had,
GOWLAND's LOTION.
CHURCH's COUGH DROPS,
ANDERSON's PILLS, &c. &c.

Wholesale purchasers allowed a liberal profit by application to Lee & Co. Market street, Baltimore; who will punctually execute all orders.

HAMBURG, November 7.

COMMERCIAL.

We beg leave to rectify the erroneous ſtatement of ſeveral Engliſh and continental prints reſpecting the bankruptcy of the great banking houſe of Wolff, Levin, Poppert and co. in Hamburg. Private letters often mention temporary ſtoppages of payments as bankruptcies, which is very injurious to the affairs of ſuch houſes.

Not only the above houſe, but three more reſpectable ones, obliged to ſtop payment, have been placed under adminiſtration, and their buſineſs continues as uſual.

The Commercial Journal of Paris mentions the failure of Meſſrs. Rucker and Weſtphalen, which we hereby think ourſelves likewiſe obliged to contradict, and to beg of our readers henceforth not to place too much confidence in reports of this kind, unleſs they are confirmed in this Journal.

The merchants of Hamburg having of late been ſupplied with caſh and bullion, public credit and confidence begin to revive on the exchange, and we flatter ourſelves that trade will ſoon reſume its wonted activity, notwithſtanding ſome failures have taken place at Berlin, Frankfort &c. which might be expected as the unavoidable conſequence of thoſe which happened at Hamburg. The great merchants of London, Liverpool and Briſtol, having weathered the ſtorm of the ſudden and dangerous fall of merchandize, even beyond all expectation, the clouds on the commercial horizon of Europe may now be looked upon as diſperſed, and by next ſpring, trade and navigation, will, no doubt, flouriſh again, on a baſis more ſolid, and to an extent more important than ever.

BRUSSELS, October 31.

Four of the principal commercial houſes here have declared themſelves in a ſtate of inſolvency, within theſe few days; the houſe of Walkiers and Vlieringen is of the number. Every thing ſeems to threaten us with other bankruptcies of ſtill greater conſequence. Commerce is in a ſtate of conſternation—this blow is fatal to the remains of our national induſtry. On the other hand ſome rich contractors, almoſt the whole of whoſe fortunes are realized, in order to elude the payment of the tax of 120,000 livres, as their quota of the loan of one hundred millions, have alſo declared themſelves in a ſtate of inſolvency.

PARIS, October 29.

They are working with more activity than ever in the ports of Dunkirk and Oſtend, and in the Weſt Scheldt, to arm light veſſels. Admiral Cataguier, it is ſaid, is going to return to the mouth of the Scheldt with his flotilla, which was aſſembled on the Zuyder Zee, for the protection of the coaſts, and the coaſting trade, which ſuffers great interruption from the Engliſh cruiſers.

It has been obſerved, that no mention was made of the Emperor in the capitulation of Rome and Civita Vecchia. It is ſuppoſed that the coaleſced powers intend to give Rome to the King of Naples, and that the Engliſh will keep ſome port in Italy.

The town of Zurich has paid the contribution which has been laid on it. It has obtained a conſiderable abatement of it from gen. Maſſena.

Gen. Thurreau obtained ſome advantages in the Valais, on the 11th October. More than 2,000 priſoners have been ſent into the back country.

TREATY
OF
Peace and Friendſhip,
BETWEEN THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND THE KINGDOM OF TUNIS.

JOHN ADAMS,
Preſident of the United States of America.

To all to whom theſe Preſent ſhall come, Greeting:

WHEREAS a Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip was definitively arranged and concluded, between the United States of America, repreſented by William Eaton and James Leander Cathcart, Eſquires, Commiſſioners for that purpoſe ſpecially appointed, and the moſt illuſtrious and moſt magnificent Bey and Government of Tunis, which Treaty is in the following words, to wit:

(TRANSLATION.)

GOD IS INFINITE.

UNDER the auſpices of the greateſt, the moſt powerful of all the princes of the Ottoman nation, who reign upon the earth, our moſt glorious and moſt auguſt Emperor, who commands the two lands and the two ſeas, SELIM KAN, the victorious, ſon of the Sultan Mouſtafa, whoſe realm may God proſper until the end of ages; the ſupport of kings, the ſeal of juſtice, the emperor of emperors.

The moſt illuſtrious and moſt magnificent prince Hamauda Pacha, Bey, who commands the Odgiak of Tunis, the abode of happineſs, and the moſt honored Ibrahim Dey, and Soliman, Aga of the Janiſſaries, and Chief of the Divan, and all the elders of the Odgiak; and the moſt diſtinguiſhed and honored Preſident of the Congreſs of the United States of America, the moſt diſtinguiſhed among thoſe who profeſs the religion of the Meſſiah, of whom may the end be happy.

We have concluded between us the preſent treaty of peace and friendſhip; all the articles of which have been framed by the intervention of Joſeph Stephen Famin, French merchant, reſiding at Tunis, chargé d'affairs of the United States of America; which ſtipulations and conditions are comprized in twenty three articles, written and expreſſed in ſuch manner as to leave no doubt of their contents, and in ſuch way as not to be contravened.

Art. I. There ſhall be a perpetual and conſtant peace between the United States of of America and the magnificent Pacha, Bey of Tunis; and alſo a permanent friendſhip, which ſhall more and more increaſe.

Art. II. If a veſſel of war of the two nations ſhall make prize of an enemy veſſel, in which may be found effects, property and ſubjects of the two contracting parties, the whole ſhall be reſtored: The Bey ſhall reſtore the property and ſubjects of the United States, and the latter ſhall make a reciprocal reſtoration; it being underſtood on both ſides, that the juſt right to what is claimed ſhall be proved.

Art. III. Merchandize belonging to any nation, which may be at war with one of the contracting parties, and loaded on board of the veſſels of the other, ſhall paſs without moleſtation and without any attempt being made to capture or detain it.

Art. IV. On both ſides ſufficient paſſports ſhall be given to veſſels, that they may be known and treated as friendly; and conſidering the diſtance between the two countries, a term of eighteen months is given, within which term reſpect ſhall be paid to the ſaid paſſports, without requiring the congé or document (which at Tunis is called Teſta) but after the ſaid term, the congé ſhall be preſented.

Art. V. If the corſairs of Tunis ſhall meet at ſea with ſhips of war of the United States, having under their eſcort merchant veſſels of their nation, they ſhall not be ſearched or moleſted; and in ſuch caſe, the commanders ſhall be believed upon their word, to exempt their ſhips from being viſited, and to avoid quarantine: The American ſhips of war ſhall act in like manner towards merchant veſſels eſcorted by the corſairs of Tunis.

Art. VI. If a Tuniſian corſair ſhall meet with an American merchant veſſel, and ſhall viſit it with her boat, ſhe ſhall not exact any thing, under pain of being ſeverely puniſhed: And in like manner, if a veſſel of war of the United States ſhall meet with a Tuniſian merchant veſſel, ſhe ſhall obſerve the ſame rule. In caſe a ſlave ſhall take refuge on board of an American veſſel of war, the conſul ſhall be required to cauſe him to be reſtored; and if any of their priſoners ſhall eſcape on board of the Tuniſian veſſels, they ſhall be reſtored: But if any ſlave ſhall take refuge in any American merchant veſſel, and it ſhall be proved that the veſſel has departed with the ſaid ſlave, then he ſhall be returned or his ranſom ſhall be paid.

Art. 7. An American citizen having purchaſed a prize veſſel from our Odgiak, may ſail with our paſſport, which we will deliver for the term of one year; by force of which our corſairs which may meet with her, ſhall reſpect her; the conſul, on his part, ſhall furniſh her with a bill of ſale, and conſidering the diſtance of the two countries, this term ſhall ſuffice to obtain a paſſport in form: But after the expiration of this term, if our corſairs ſhall meet with her without the paſſport of the United States, ſhe ſhall be ſtopped and declared good prize, as well the veſſel as the cargo and crew.

Art. 8. If a veſſel of one of the contracting parties ſhall be obliged to enter into a port of the other, and may have need of proviſions and other articles, they ſhall be granted to her without any difficulty, at the price current at the place; and if ſuch a veſſel ſhall have ſuffered at ſea, and ſhall have need of repairs, ſhe ſhall be at liberty to unload and re-load her cargo, without being obliged to pay any duty; and the captain ſhall pay only the wages of thoſe whom he ſhall have employed as well for the unloading of the goods as for their reloading.

Art. 9. If by accident and by the permiſſion of God, a veſſel of one of the contracting parties ſhall be caſt by tempeſt upon the coaſts of the other, and ſhall be wrecked, or otherwiſe damaged, the commandant of the place ſhall render all poſſible aſſiſtance for its preſervation, without allowing any perſon to make any oppoſition; and the proprietor of the effects ſhall pay the coſts of ſalvage to thoſe who may have been employed.

Art. 10. In caſe a veſſel of one of the contracting parties ſhall be attacked by an enemy, under the cannon of the forts of the other party, ſhe ſhall be protected and defended, as much as poſſible; and when he ſhall ſet ſail, no enemy ſhall be permitted to purſue her, from the ſame port, or any other neighbour port, for forty-eight hours after her departure.

Art. 11. When a veſſel of war of the United States of America ſhall come into the port of Tunis, and the Conſul ſhall requeſt that the caſtle may ſalute her, the number of guns ſhall be fired, which he ſhall requeſt; and and if the ſaid Conſul does not wiſh a ſalute, there ſhall be no queſtion about it. But in caſe he ſhall deſire the ſalute, and the number of guns he ſhall have requeſted ſhall have been fired, they ſhall be counted, and for them the veſſel ſhall deliver an equal number of barrels of cannon-powder. The ſame ſhall be done with reſpect to the Tuniſian Corſairs when they ſhall go into any port of the United States.

Art. 12. When the citizens of the United States come within the dependencies of Tunis to carry on commerce, the ſame reſpect ſhall be paid them as the merchants of other nations enjoy; and if they deſire to eſtabliſh themſelves within our ports, no oppoſition ſhall be made; and they ſhall be free to avail themſelves of ſuch interpreters as they may judge neceſſary, without any obſtacle thereto, in conformity to the uſages of other nations; and if any Tuniſian ſubject goes to eſtabliſh himſelf within the dependencies of the United States, he ſhall be treated in the ſame manner. If a Tuniſian ſubject ſhall freight an American veſſel, and ſhall load her with merchandize, and he ſhall afterwards wiſh to unlade it, or ſhip the ſame on board of another veſſel, we will not permit him, until the matter ſhall be decided by merchants, who ſhall make an award thereon which ſhall be concluſive. No captain ſhall be detained againſt his will in port, except in the caſe of our ports being ſhut for the veſſels of all other nations; which may extend to merchant veſſels, but not to thoſe of war.

The ſubjects of the two contracting parties ſhall be under the protection of the prince, and under the command of the chief of the place where they may be, and no other perſon ſhall have authority over them. If the commandant of the place does not demean himſelf according to juſtice, repreſentations concerning the ſame ſhall be made to us. In caſe the government ſhall have need of an American merchant veſſel, it ſhall cauſe it to be freighted, and then a ſuitable freight ſhall be paid to the captain agreeably to the intention of the government, and the captain ſhall not refuſe the ſame.

Art. 13. If among the crews of merchant veſſels of the United States, there ſhall be found ſubjects of our enemies, they ſhall not be made ſlaves, on condition, that they do not exceed a third of the crew; and when they do exceed a third, they ſhall be made ſlaves: The preſent article only concerns the ſailors, and not the paſſengers, who ſhall not be in any manner moleſted.

Art. 14. A Tuniſian merchant who may go to America with a veſſel of any nation whatſoever, laden with merchandize being the productions of the kingdom of Tunis ſhall pay duty (ſmall as it may be) like the merchants of other nations; and the American merchants ſhall equally pay, for the merchandize of their country, which they ſhall bring to Tunis under their flag, the ſame duty which the Tuniſians ſhall pay in America. But if an American merchant or a merchant of any other nation ſhall import merchandiſe of America, under any other flag, he ſhall pay a duty of ten per cent: In like manner, if a foreign merchant ſhall import merchandize of his country under the American flag, he ſhall alſo pay ten per cent.

Art. 15. It ſhall be free for the citizens of the United States, to carry on what commerce they pleaſe in the kingdom of Tunis, without any oppoſition, and they ſhall be treated like the merchants of other nations; but they ſhall not carry on commerce in wine, nor in prohibited articles: and if any one ſhall be detected in a contraband trade, he ſhall be puniſhed according to the laws of the country. The commandants of ports and caſtles ſhall take care that the captains and ſailors ſhall not load prohibited articles; but if this ſhould happen, thoſe who ſhall not have contributed the ſmuggling ſhall not be moleſted nor ſearched, no more than the veſſel and cargo; but only the offender, who ſhall be demanded to be puniſhed. No captain ſhall be obliged to receive merchandize on board of his veſſel, nor to unlade the ſame, againſt his will, until his freight ſhall be paid.

Art. 16. The merchant veſſels of the United States which ſhall caſt anchor in the road of the Goulette, or any other port of the kingdom of Tunis, ſhall be obliged to pay the ſame anchorage for entry and departure, which French veſſels pay; to wit, ſeventeen piaſters and an-half, money of Tunis, for entry, if they import merchandize, and the ſame for departure, if they take away a cargo; but they ſhall not be obliged to pay anchorage, if they arrive in ballaſt and depart in the ſame manner.

Art. 17. Each of the contracting parties ſhall be at liberty to eſtabliſh a Conſul in the dependencies of the other; and if ſuch conſul does not act in conformity with the uſages of the country, like others, the government of the place ſhall inform his government of it, to the end that he may be changed and replaced; but he ſhall enjoy, as well for himſelf as his family and ſuite, the protection of the government: And he may import for his own uſe all his proviſions and furniture, without paying any duty; and if he ſhall import merchandize, (which ſhall be lawful for him to do) he ſhall pay duty for it.

Art. 18. If the ſubjects or citizens of either of the contracting parties, being within the poſſeſſions of the other, contract debts or enter into obligations, neither the conſul nor the nation, nor any ſubjects or citizens thereof, ſhall be in any manner reſponſible, except they or the conſul ſhall have previouſly become bound in writing: And without this obligation in writing, they cannot be called upon for indemnity or ſatisfaction.

Art. 19. In caſe of a citizen or ſubject of either of the contracting parties dying within the poſſeſſions of the other, the conſul or the vekil ſhall take poſſeſſion of his effects (if he does not leave a will) of which he ſhall make an inventory; and the government of the place ſhall have nothing to do therewith: And if there ſhall be no conſul, the effects ſhall be depoſited in the hands of a confidential perſon of the place, taking an inventory of the whole, that they may eventually be delivered to thoſe to whom they of right belong.

Art. 20. The conſul ſhall be the judge in all diſputes between his fellow citizens or ſubjects, as alſo between all other perſons who may be immediately under his protection; and in all caſes wherein he ſhall require the aſſiſtance of the government where he reſides to ſanction his deciſions, it ſhall be granted to him.

Art. 21. If a citizen or ſubject of one of the parties ſhall kill, wound or ſtrike a citizen or ſubject of the other, juſtice ſhall be done according to the laws of the country where the offence ſhall be committed: The conſul ſhall be preſent at the trial; but if any offender ſhall eſcape, the conſul ſhall be in no manner reſponſible for it.

Art. 22. If a diſpute or law-ſuit, or commercial or other civil matter, ſhall happen, the trial ſhall be had in the preſence of the conſul, or of a confidential perſon of his choice, who ſhall repreſent him, and endeavor to accommodate the difference which may have happened between the citizens or ſubjects of the two nations.

Art. 23. If any difference or diſpute ſhall take place concerning the infraction of any article of the preſent treaty, on either ſide, peace and good harmony ſhall not be interrupted, until a friendly application ſhall have been made for ſatisfaction; and reſort ſhall not be had to arms therefor, except where ſuch application ſhall have been rejected; and if war be then declared, the term of one year ſhall be allowed to the citizens or ſubjects of the contracting parties, to arrange their affairs and to withdraw themſelves with their property.

The agreements and terms above concluded by the two contracting parties, ſhall be punctually obſerved, with the will of the MOST HIGH: And for the maintenance and exact obſervance of the ſaid agreements, we have cauſed their contents to be here tranſcribed, in the month of Rebia Elul of the Hegira one thouſand two hundred and twelve, correſponding with the month of Auguſt, of the chriſtian year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven.

JOHN ADAMS.

By the Preſident,
TIMOTHY PICKERING,
Secretary of State.

At a ſtated meeting of the American Philoſophical Society, held at their Hall, January 17, 1800, the following perſons were elected members:

Robert Liſton, Eſq. his Britannic Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the United States of America.

John R. Smith, A. M. of Philadelphia.

Juſtus Eric Bollman, M. D. of do.

William Dunbar of the Miſſiſſippi Territory.—Extract from the minutes.

THOMAS P. SMITH, Secretary.

NEW YORK, January 18.

On change yeſterday a report was in circulatian, which ſtated that Mr. Vans Murray, one of our miniſters appointed to treat with the French Republic, had arrived at Paris from the Hague; that he was received with every demonſtration of joy; and had been aſſured by the Directory, that the moſt happy iſſue might be expected from the negociation to be opened as ſoon as the other miniſters arrived from the United States, who were hourly expected.

We took conſiderable pains to trace this report to its ſource; and ſaw the gentleman who had it from his friend, who received it from a gentleman lately arrived at Newport (R. I) from Rochefort.

As much as the circuitous route of this report may argue againſt its authenticity, we can ſtate as corroborative of the report, upon the authority of the laſt Newport paper, the arrival there of a veſſel from Rochefort.

We never recollect to have witneſsed a greater alarm, than that of laſt evening: when, at the ſame inſtant, the cry of, fire! fire! was proclaimed in the northern and ſouthern extremeties of the city. The Britiſh armed ſhip Admiral Duncan, lying at Sultus's wharf, took fire, and continued to burn for an hour before ſhe was cut looſe and hauled into the ſtream; where notwithſtanding every effort, ſhe was conſuming at one o'clock this morning, when this paper went to preſs. The Admiral Duncan, we are informed, had a cargo on board to the value of 70,000 dollars and was to have ſailed this morning for Liverpool.

The fire in the northern part of the city, was a houſe near the new banks, which was conſumed.

We ſtop the preſs at 2 o'clock this morning, to ſtate that the ſhip Olive, which drifted from the wharf foul of the Admiral Duncan, to appearance, is on fire—both ſhips aground on the Long Iſland ſide near the mills.

The ſcene, at this moment, is terrible! —rain! a hurricane! and the heavens illuminated by the fierce devouring flames!

FIRE BUCKETS.

☞ The great inattention ſhewn by a number of Citizens, by ſuffering their Fire Buckets to remain for days and ſometimes for weeks in the ſtreets and alleys, adjacant to where they have been uſed at fires, has induced the Mayor to direct the High Conſtable, at the expiration of four days from the time that a fire ſhall happen in the City, to have collected and removed to the City Hall, the Fire Buckets which he may find in the Streets after that period. The owner will thereby have an opportunity of recovering their Buckets, which perhaps, otherwiſe would have been loſt by their neglect. A number is now at the City Hall.

Just Published,

A COMPENDIOUS SYSTEM

Of Practical Surveying and dividing of land; briefly comprized under the following heads, viz.

TWENTY THREE Geometrical Definitions, eleven Geometrical Positions, exhibiting to view the properties and depeadencies of triangles; followed by problems and examples preparatory to Trigonometry, heights and distances. Then fifteen problems and examples necessarily previous to calculating a Survey succeeded by seven surveys, the area of the four first is found geometrically, and of the whole number by difference of latitude and departure, shewing how to take an inaccessible boundary, find the bearing and distance of the closing line without running it, also the distances to an inaccessible corner from the two adjacent corners, followed by examples of offsets on to winding streams of water, shewing how to ascertain the area without the trouble of measuring the windings with chains and instruments—a crooked water course straitened, and a quantity of land on each side found by these offsets.

Ten examples of dividing land, with many sub-divisions, leading into the most critical circumstances that can occur in practice; an example of Intersections, and an example shewing how the bearings of a field may be truly taken where the needle is attracted, altho' the attraction may vary in quantity and denomination at every station; examples shewing the method of measuring by the chain only. All the rules are clear and explicit. This work contains the tables of difference of latitude and departure and of logarithms.

Orders sent to Joseph and James Cruckshank, Bookfellers, No. 87, High street, Philadelphia, Bonsall and Niles, 173, Market Street, Baltimore, or the Subscriber in Wilmington (Del.) will be duly attended to.

Those who have the care of subscription papers for this work, are raquested to send their respective numbers as soon as possible, to whom the quota's will be sent agreeably to the proposals.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

From the commencement

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in these rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroy every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work; so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent, and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped, furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
